About Us

The UNA Westchester Young Professionals (YP) Program is part of the United Nations Association of the USA (UNA-USA). We bring together young leaders in Westchester who are committed to advancing the UN's Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Through education, advocacy, and community action, we connect local efforts to global challenges — promoting peace, human rights, and sustainable development.

UNA
WESTCHESTER

Contact:

unawestchester@gmail.com

35 Heath Place Hastings on Hudson, NY 10706

www.unawestchester.org

Any citizen or resident of the United States of America who is committed to the purposes of UNA–USA may join. UNA–USA is a 501(c) 3 nonprofit, educational organization. Contributions are tax-deductible.

United Nations Assocation Young Professionals

Apply for the Global Goals Ambassador Network!

The Global Goals Ambassadors Network offers UNA-USA members the opportunity to connect with others about a particular SDG, share their expertise and experience, and create chances to collaborate with organizations dedicated to the pursuit of the SDGs.

Join or renew your membership

Scan to join

Dedicated to the same values that led to the creation of the United Nations in 1945

- Human rights for all people
- combating world poverty
- finding peaceful resolutions to conflict
- protecting the world's environment

UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Membership

Invitations

Invitations to exclusive UNA Westchester and UNA-USA events.

Opportunities

Opportunities to collaborate on advocacy campaigns and community projects

Advocacy & Actions

Support campaigns and initiatives that advance the UN's mission and the SDGs.